

Report:IDEAL

It is hundred percent true that books are our best friends. They are our never failing companions. Books may be our guide, philosopher and teacher. After a productive brainstorming session on the importance of books in the scientifically emerging and competing world we decided to organise an event titled IDEAL-I Donate for Education And Learning that aims at helping poor kids for their education .The motto of IDEAL is to fulfil the educational requirement of poor children by donating books which are tools to acquire knowledge through reading. We placed drop boxes at different places in the college premises and requested the students to donate old text books, story books, auto-biographies etc.,. we could collect a huge amount of books from the drop boxes within a short time. We donated all the collected books at SHIVANANDA rehabilitation centre which is a home for HIV effected children on 15th august '13. The children belong to poor families which cannot afford their education. Our day ended with smiles and cheers and tremendous happiness of helping the needy.
